11. Should the funds available in the BORROWER's account(s) be insufficient to cover a liability for a fee/commission as per the BANK's Tariff for Private Clients/Legal Entities, the BANK shall debit the due amount to the account on the day upon which the obligation to pay such fee/commission arises, and shall charge penalty interest in accordance with the BANK's Tariff, payable until the date of full repayment of the liability. Upon early repayment of the loan or part thereof, the BORROWER shall pay the principal and interest, which are due at the time of early repayment, as well as an early repayment commission fee as set out in the BANK's Tariff prevailing at the time of early repayment. Should the amount in the BORROWER's account on the 30th day be insufficient to repay all liabilities to the BANK (including principal, interest and due fees and commissions) and/or the amount cannot be utilised due to a distraint on the account or other legal measure, it shall be considered that the request of the BORROWER for early repayment has been revoked by the BORROWER.
